Marjorie Thor

Word has been received of the death of Marjorie Dirksen Thor, 47, of San Jose, Calif. She was the daughter of George and the late Evelyn Elliott Dirksen. George Dirksen was a former Superintendent of Schools in Columbia and Marjorie was born while they were living here. She had been in poor health the past few years. Her husband, Tom Thor, passed away last year shortly after visiting relatives in Columbia.

She is survived by her father George Dirksen of Fresno, Calif.; her stepmother; one daughter, Mrs. Steve McCarthy of Watsonville, Calif.; one son Chris Cutter, attending college at UCLA; one sister, Nancy Hinsch of Fresno; one brother Bruce of Arcadia, Calif.; and three grandchildren. Her mother preceded her in death in 1973.
